

Electricity Supply Industry Trainer's Forum—18th April 2024

Commodore Hotel, 449 Memorial Avenue Christchurch

8.30am	Tea / Coffee and Networking
9.00	Welcome and Introductions	Michael Whaley — Chair Capability Development Group (CDG) / Electricity Utilities Consultant
9.10	Changes to Electrical Licensing Regime	Scott Gray, Madi O'Neil — Electrical Workers Registration Board (EWRB)
9.35	Common Competency Framework	Ken Stirling — ENA Advisor: Safety, work process and worker competency
10.00 — 10.30am Morning tea
10.30	Knowledge Network	Graeme Johnson — Chair, Safety Standards and Procedures Group (SSPG) / HSEQ Technical Manager, Omexom
11.00	EEA's Micro Credentials	Rob McCrone — EEA Consultant
11.20	Update on Industry Training	Sue Roberts — Group Manager Learning Solutions, Connexis
11.45	Energy Safety	Gareth Le Roux — Energy Safety
12.10— 12.50pm Lunch
12.50	Building a highly skilled workforce	Natasha Riches — Relationship Manager, Waihanga Ara Rau, Workforce Development Council
1.20	Discussion on Supervision – the biggest challenge	Rachel Masters — Group General Manager People, Safety and Culture, Unison
2.00	Development of inhouse training modules	Mark Keller — Trade Competency and Development Manager, WEL Networks
2.30— 3.00pm Afternoon tea
3.00	Northpower's apprenticeship development — Pathways and Cadetships	Matt Iorangi — Group Manager Capability, Northpower
3.30	Training to demonstrate competency for electricians for live LV work	Peter Wilson — Technical Capability Manager, Connetics
4.00	Future direction of forum	Hayley Head — Principal Advisor, Health and Safety, EEA
4.00	Close out	